

GCOE International Joint Research

01. What Kind of Ethics Support Food Communities?: Intimate and Public Confidence between Farmers and Consumers

AKITSU Motoki (Associate Professor, Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

02. Empirical Study of the Intimate Sphere Formed by the Migrate Minority under Struggle for Survival

OKA Mari (Professor, Graduate School of Human and Environment Studies, Kyoto University)

03. The Description, Documentation, and Preservation of the Languages and Culture of Ikema Ryukyuan: An Attempt at Constructing a Digital Museum

TAKUBO Yukinori (Professor, Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

04. Sociological Theories of Public Sphere and “Multiple Modernities”

TANAKA Noriyuki (Associate Professor, Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

05. Representations of Home, Women and Children in the Eastern and Western Art

NAKAMURA Toshiharu (Professor, Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

06. Changing Regions and Social Policies under the Economic Integration

YAGI Kiichiro (Professor, Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University)