

Next Generation Research

[Next Generation Research]

01. ‘Outsourcing of Cooking’ in Japan and the Offshore Sourcing from Asia as Reconstruction of Intimate and Public Spheres: An Empirical Study of the Food Regime Theory through the Case of Japan’s RTD (Ready-To-Drink) Tea Made in Sri Lankan

KANIE Megumi (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

02. Reconstruction of the Public Sphere and Invisibility of the Structural Weak: From the Case Study of Division between Gay Men and Transgender Persons in a Sexual Minority Group in Osaka

TOKAJI Tamio (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

03. A Study on the Social Organization vis-a-vis “Poverty” in Local Cities: Reconstruction of Public and Intimate Spheres by the Professionals and the “Poor”

NISHIKAWA Tomoyuki (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

04. Organizational Learning Based on Voluntarism: Exploring NPO Experiences

NOGUCHI Hiroki (Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University)

05. The Newcomers in Suburban Villages: Social Relationships to Established Inhabitants and Tendency to Participate in Management of Regional Resources

HONDA Yasuko (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

06. Okinawan Immigrants in Micronesia under Japanese Mandate Work, Life, Kinship and Regional Relationship

MORI Akiko (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

[Next Generation Research Unit]

01. Girl’s Magazines and Gender in the 1950s

IMADA Erika (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

02. Transformation and Reconstruction of Intimacy in Japanese Rural Communities: Bridging between Case Studies and Theoretical Research

ENAMI Kenji (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

03. Individual Experiences and Alternative Spheres of Intimacy and Public-ness

KATO Genta (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

04. Changing Work and Lifestyle of Japanese and Transnationalising East Asia: Migration from Japan to Taiwan and China since the Mid 1990s

KANETO Sachiko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

05. Urban Segregation and the Possibility of a New Intimate Sphere: International Comparison of Global Cities in Europe, Japan and Asia

KAWANO Eiji (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

06. New Social Risks and Reconstruction of the Public Sphere: Comparative Analysis of Japan, Korea, Canada, Germany, and Egypt

KAWAMURA Yusuke (Graduate School of Law, Kyoto University)

07. On Relationship between US Base Residents and the Surrounding Community through a Case Study of Sunabe Ward in Chatan, Okinawa

KIMURA Jun (Graduate School of Human and Environment Studies, Kyoto University)

08. Diversity Management for Overcoming Gender Segregation of Professional Workers in Organizations

KUSANO Chiaki (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

09. Aspects of Social Movement in a Minority Community as Presented by an Example of Higashi-Kujyo

Koh Sung Man (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

10. The Life Strategy of the Intimate Sphere in Coal Mining Societies

SASAKI Tasuku (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

11. Visual Culture and Intimacy: Comparative Study on Eastern Europe and East Asia

SHUTO Natsuki (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

12. Classifying Trends of the Policy Makers' Views on Family in Japan after the World War II

JOSHITA Kenichi (College of Letters, Ritsumeikan University)

13. The Construction of National Identity and Reorganization of the Public Sphere in Finland: With Special Reference to A. Kemiläinen's Research on Nationalism

TAKEUCHI Rio (Jyväskylä University / Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

14. Research on the Formation and Maintenance of a Potential Public Sphere through Interpersonal Communication

CHE Aishun (Graduate School of Human and Environmental Studies, Kyoto University)

15. The Feature and Structure of Student Culture at a Local Prestige Girls' School in Prewar Days: Focusing on the Conflict between Home and School Principles

TSUCHIDA Yoko (Graduate School of Human and Environmental Studies, Kyoto University)

16. The Emergence of Public and Intimate Spheres for Taiwanese Indigenous People

TSUBOTA (NAKANISHI) Miki (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

17. An Investigation on Development of CPTED in Communities: Case Studies of the Processes and Practices of Its Reception by Residents, Architects and Municipalities

NISHIKAWA Junji (Graduate School of Human and Environmental Studies, Kyoto University)

18. A Study Group on Girls' Culture in Visual Contents

Park Jinhee (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

19. Reconstruction of Subsistence, Linking the Intimate Sphere with the Public Sphere

MASUDA Kazuya (Center for Southeast Asian Studies, Kyoto University)

20. Reorganization of the Cultural Public Sphere through the Media: Music Festivals in Japan and the United States in the Postwar Era

MORIYAMA Takahito (Graduate School of Human and Environmental Studies, Kyoto University)

21. The Economic Transformation and Social Policy in Hungary under the European Economic Integration and Transition

YANAGIHARA Tsuyoshi (Graduate School of Economics, Kyoto University)

22. Transformation of Intimate and Public Spheres in the Zainichi Korean Society

YAMAGUCHI Kenichi (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

23. Constructing Theoretical Concepts of Family and Intimacy in a Non-Western Context: A Knowledge-Sociology Fieldwork in East Asia and East Europe

RAJKAI Zsombor Tibor (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)