

Next Generation Research

[Next Generation Research]

01. Agricultural Mechanization and Transformation of Agricultural Labor Organization in Japanese Rural Society after World War II: Focusing on Agents between Intimate and Public Spheres

ASHIDA Yusuke (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

02. The Historical Transition of Public Recognition of “Farmers” and “Farm villages”: In the Cooperative Extension Work in Post-war Japan.

IWASHIMA Fumi (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

03. Comparative Study of Dutch Child Care and Japanese Child Care

TANI Noriko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

04. The Change of Intimate Spheres in Post-war East Asia in Relation with the Border Control Systems

PAKU Sara (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

05. Reconstruction of the Management of Regional Resources in Suburban Villages

HONDA Yasuko (Graduate School of Agriculture, Kyoto University)

06. Young Japanese Emigrants and Their International Career Path: Emigration from Japan to Hong Kong, Shanghai, Singapore from 1990s

MATSUTANI Minori (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

07. Family and Tradition through Food of Cultural Contact Zone

YASUI Daisuke (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

[Next Generation Research Unit]

01. Control of Spaces and Recreation of Intimate Sphere in Modern and Contemporary Japan

ASADA Yoshitaka (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

02. A Study on the Affinity of Women's Representation for Agriculture and Rural Space

ICHINOMIYA Masako (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

03. The Repatriation and Reconstruction of the Intimate Spheres of Manchurian Settlers:
On the Social Reintegration of Manchurian Settlers into Postwar Japan

INOMATA Yusuke (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

04. Reflexive Modernization and Transformation of the Intimate Spheres in Postwar Japan

UENO Hiroki (Graduate School of Human and Environment Studies, Kyoto University)

05. Theoretical Researches about Transformation and Reconstruction of Intimate Sphere in Japanese Rural Communities: Through the case of Higashi Kisyu

ENAMI Kenji (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

06. Coal Mining Communities as the Intimate / Public Sphere: From the Representation of Industrial Heritage

KIMURA Shisei (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

07. 'New New Comers' in Japan and Intimate Spheres: Focusing on Foreign Trainee and Technical Interns from Southeast Asia

SAI Hironori (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

08. Maintaining of House by Circulation Networks between City and Hometown: An Ethnographic Study of Women's Labor and Upbringing Children among Chinese Society in Malaysia.

SAKURADA Ryoko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

09. Representation about Intimate Spheres of Migrants: Case Study on Visual Works.

SASAKI Tasuku (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

10. The Construction of an Ideal Woman Image in the Alumni Magazines of Prestige Girls'
High Schools in Prewar Days: Comparative Study of Wakayama City, Kyoto City and Kobe
City

TSUCHIDA Yoko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

11. Communication and Network in Japanese Child-raising Support Groups

TOE Tetsuri (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

12. A Study on the Exportation of Japanese Woman Culture to Thailand via SHOUJO-MANGA and Woman Magazine

TOJIRAKARN Mashima (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

13. Representations of Affection between Men and Women in the Western Paintings

NAKADA Asuka (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

14. An Empirical Study on the Intimate Sphere of Migrant Foreign Labors and Changes of the Regional Societies in Japan

NAKATA Hideki (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

15. Female Migrations of the Socialism Countries in Asia during the Post Cold War

NAKAYAMA Taisho (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

16. Social Governance and International Comparison

HAMANISHI Eiji (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

17. Cultural Anthropological Study of “Okinawan Practice” by Uchinanchu living in Nagoya city: An Pluralist Approach.

HIRAI Meari (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

18. The Examination of Modernity of Japanese Immigrant Women in Los Angeles before World War II

FUJISAKA Kyoko (Graduate School of Human and Environment Studies, Kyoto University)

19. The Reconstruction of the Intimate Spheres and the Public Spheres of Thai Female Migrants: Their Practice of Networking between Thailand and Japan

MATSUI Tomoko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

20. Social Security System in Hungary under Transformation and ‘Varieties of Capitalism’

YANAGIHARA Tsuyoshi (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

21. Transformation of Intimate and Public Spheres in the Zainichi-Korean /
Zaikan-Chosenzoku Society

YAMAGUCHI Kenichi (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

22. Restructured Mothering of Japanese Expatriate Housewives Who Hire Maids in the Philippines

YAMAMOTO Michiko (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)

23. Transformation of the Intimate and Public Spheres in Transitional Societies:
Family and Community - Taking China, Hungary, Poland, Slovakia and Ukraine as Case Studies

RAJKAI Zsombor Tibor (Graduate School of Letters, Kyoto University)